[Hon. Howard D. McKibben]

ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR
FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS
ACTION SETTLEMENT WITH THE SUZUKI DEFENDANTS

24
25 This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's motion for final approval of the proposed class
26 action settlement (the "Settlement") between the representative plaintiffs Shige Takiguchi, et al.
27 ("Plaintiffs") and (1) Junzo Suzuki, (2) Paul Suzuki, (3) Keiko Suzuki, (4) the Suzuki Enterprises, Inc.
28 Profit Sharing Plan, (5) Catherine Suzuki, trustee of the Junzo Suzuki Irrevocable Trust, (6) Catherine

1 Suzuki, trustee of the Keiko Suzuki Irrevocable Trust, (7) Catherine Suzuki, trustee of the Junzo Suzuki
2 and Keiko Suzuki Irrevocable Trust, (8) Suzuki Enterprises, Inc., (9) Puuikena Investments LLP, (10)
3 Catherine Mai Suzuki, trustee of the Catherine Suzuki Irrevocable Trust dated May 10, 2013, and (11)
4 Paul Musashi Suzuki, trustee of the Paul Musashi Suzuki Irrevocable Trust dated May 10, 2013
5 (collectively, the “Suzuki Defendants”). Having considered the Motion, the Settlement Agreement, the 6 pleadings and other papers filed in these Actions, and all of the arguments and evidence presented at the 7 Final Approval hearing held on May 22, 2018 and for good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as 8 follows:

9 1. Unless otherwise defined herein, all terms that are capitalized herein shall have the 10 meanings ascribed to those terms in the Settlement Agreement.

11 2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Settlement Agreement with 12 respect to and over all parties to the Settlement Agreement, including Class members and the Suzuki
13 Defendants.

14 3. The Court confirms its January 11, 2018 Order granting conditional certification of the 15 class as to the newly added Suzuki Defendants. (Dkt. 797.)

16 4. Final approval of a class action settlement is appropriate under Federal Rules of Civil 17 Procedure 23(e) if the settlement “is fundamentally fair, adequate and reasonable.” Officer for Justice v.
18 Civil Serv. Comm’n, 688 F.2d 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). In determining whether the settlement is “fair,
19 adequate and reasonable,” the Court should consider “the strength of plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense,
20 complexity, and likely duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout 21 the trial; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the 22 proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a governmental participant; and the 23 reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” Id.

24 5. First, the Court is satisfied that the parties have engaged in extensive litigation and that the 25 Settlement was reached after arms-length negotiations by capable counsel, and was not the product of 26 fraud, overreaching or collusion among the parties.

27 6. Second, the risks of ongoing litigation also support the Court’s final approval of the 28 Settlement. Through the Settlement, the parties have reduced the scope of the ongoing litigation and

1 lessened the expense and burden of trial.

2 7. Third, the Settlement provides the Class with substantial benefits, i.e., approximately
3 $13,100,000 in cash, real property, and interests in timeshares owned by the Suzuki Defendants, the final
4 figure subject to change because part of the amount will be determined by the sale of seven real
5 properties and two interests in timeshares, of which Plaintiffs will receive 62% of the net proceeds. In 6 addition, the Suzuki Defendants have warranted that they have disclosed their entire assets, and have
7 promised reasonable cooperation with respect to Plaintiffs' further prosecution of the Action. As part of 8 the Settlement, the parties also agreed to settle three pending lawsuits in Japan, with the Suzuki
9 Defendants providing approximately $2.4 Million in assets located in Japan to the plaintiffs in those 10 Japanese lawsuits. (This class action settlement was contingent upon settlement of the three lawsuits in 11 Japan. The Japanese lawsuits have settled in principle, and a final court order resolving them will be 12 entered on May 29, 2018 by the Tokyo High Court. The proceeds from the settlement of the Japanese
13 lawsuits are separate and apart from this class action and shall not be subject to distribution to class
14 members.) The recovery for the Class is substantial, given the disputes over liability of the various 15 individual and entity defendants, the risks of collection that would accompany any judgment and the time
16 and expense that going forward with the litigation would entail. In return Plaintiffs have agreed to a
17 reasonable and fair release of the claims against The Suzuki Defendants.

18 8. Fourth, the views of Plaintiffs' counsel, who are experienced in litigating and settling
19 antitrust class actions, weigh in favor of final approval. Linney v. Cellular Alaska P'Ship, No. 96-3008-
20 DJL, 1997 WL 450064, at *5 (N.D. Cal. July 18, 1997), aff'd 151 F.3d 1234 (9th Cir. 1998). Plaintiffs'
21 counsel have conducted an extensive investigation into the factual and legal issues raised in this Action
22 and endorse the Settlements as fair, adequate, and reasonable.

23 9. Finally, the reaction of the Class members supports final approval. There were no
24 requests for exclusion. Moreover, there was only one Class Member who objected to the settlement out
25 of approximately 8,700 Class Members.

26 10. Accordingly, the Court finds that the Settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable within 27 the meaning of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(e).

28 11. Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B) sets forth the standards that must be met

1 when sending notice of a proposed class action settlement. It requires that the notice be clear, concise
2 and in plainly understood language, and must set forth “(i) the nature of the action; (ii) the definition of
3 the class certified; (iii) the class claims, issues, or defenses; (iv) that a class member may enter an
4 appearance through an attorney if the member so desires; (v) that the court will exclude from the class
5 any member who requests exclusion; (vi) the time and manner for requesting exclusion; and (vii) the 6 binding effect of a class judgment on members under Rule 23(c)(3).”

7 12. The Court finds that the notice program approved by the Court on June 13, 2017 has been
8 implemented and complies with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(c)(2)(B). Notice was sent to all
9 Class members by mail. The notice provided a clear description of Class members’ rights and options
10 under the Settlement. The notice explained how to object to the Settlement, how to obtain copies of 11 relevant documents, and how to contact Class Counsel and the Notice Administrator.

12 13. The Notice Administrator, approved by the Court, set up a telephone hotline and a website
13 where Class members can access copies of the Settlement Agreement; the notice; and the class
14 certification order in both English and in Japanese. Class members could also object to the Settlement by 15 mail.

16 14. The Court will defer ordering a plan of allocation until the final resolution of the entire 17 matter, or upon motion by Plaintiffs.

18 15. By means of this Final Approval Order, the Court hereby enters final judgment in this
19 action as between Plaintiffs and the Suzuki Defendants, as defined in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
20 58(a)(1).

21 16. All Released Claims of Plaintiffs and the Class are hereby released as against the Suzuki
22 Defendants.

23 17. Without affecting the finality of the Court’s judgment in any way, the Court retains 24 jurisdiction over this matter for purposes of resolving issues relating to the interpretation, administration,
25 implementation, effectuation and enforcement of the Settlement.

26 18. The Court hereby appoints Heffler Claims Group as the Claims Administrator and orders
27 that the Claims Administrator take all actions necessary to comply with this Final Approval Order and 28 the terms of the Settlement, including the establishment of a Qualified Settlement Fund. All expenses

1 and fees incurred by Claims Administrator shall be paid from the Settlement Fund.

2 19. The parties and the Claims Administrator are hereby ordered to comply with the terms of 3 the Settlement.

4 20. This action is dismissed with prejudice as against the Suzuki Defendants, each side to bear
5 its own costs and attorneys' fees except as provided by the Settlement and the Court's orders.

6 21. As of the Effective Date of the Settlement, this Court's preliminary injunction order (Dkt.
7 183) freezing the assets of the Suzuki Defendants is permanently lifted and vacated. If no appeals are 8 filed, then the Effective Date shall be June 22, 2018.
